This December update .....

PRE CHRISTMAS GET TOGETHER

A great day had by all !! Eighty Members, spouses, children and grandchildren turned out for a lovely celebration and lunch. A great big thank you to Brooke and Simone Carmody, grandchildren of George and Clare Curtis (parents Danielle and Scott Carmody). The girls did a fantastic job of organizing the name tags and the lucky door tickets as well as the raffle – Well Done girls and thanks again.

Congratulations to Paul and Kim Biddlestone the lucky winners of the Snow raffle, they will enjoy this great prize.

7 Days x 2 People at the Smiggins Ski Lodge for the 2012 Season OR 7 Days x 1 Unit at Jindabyne Lodge during 2012 !

The president, Gavin Boyd, gave a brief outline of the 2011 past year stating that it had been a year of improved lodge attendance, good feedback and so far looking a profitable year. He highlighted that this was particularly impressive given that at a recent SLOPES meeting many lodges indicated that they had reduced lodge attendance in 2011. He cited these achievements together with the great club spirit that has been so evident in many aspects of the club life over the past year as tremendous encouragement to him.

Andrew Waugh was announced as the Club Member of the Year for his terrific contribution at the Jindabyne lodge. Gavin also highlighted the very hard work of many volunteers but particularly Liz Burgess, Smiggins Bookings Officer, the Board and our employees Christine Hornig and Gudrun and Juergen Paul. He thanked all Club Members who have continued to work hard to ensure the ongoing success of the Club which enables the Club to build on its great tradition.
